Summary of Expenditures Title II

10/1/05 to 9/30/06

Attached is a specific listing of expenditures for Title II monies expended during the '06 fiscal year. This summary sheet indicates totals for the specific categories outlined in Title III. In some cases, incidental costs such as shipping, printing, travel or training may cover more than one categories. These expenditures are summarized below the Title III categories.

Voting Systems (Section 301)

Expenditures in this category include approximately $5.6 million for a Automark ballot marking equipment that allows voters (including disabled voters) to mark an optical scan ballot in private and unassisted as required by section 301(2). In addition, approximately $4.6 million in expenditures was for a mix of central and precinct scan vote tabulators to count such ballots. Included in these amounts are some costs associated with training of local officials on the equipment.

Central Voter Registration System (Section 303)

Approximately $1.1 million of the Title II funds were expended on the Central Voter Registration system including software costs, consulting fees for testing and other functions, and costs associated with coordinating other databases such as motor vehicles, criminal justice, and vital statistics.

Other Expenditures

Other expenditures of approximately $75,000 are attributable to more than one category include printing, training, shipping and postage costs.
